"Captain Pieter was excellent to work with. Communicative, calm under pressure. He and his crew took it all in their stride and were wonderful to work with. They even had to deal with a surprise furry guest at the final hour and handled it with ease! One of the guests was also a successful restaurateur and they were very happy with the food. I can relay confidence with this charter program and crew."

THE YACHT

Impromptu's sleek and sporty design credentials make her an idyllic yacht on which to escape with family and friends.

Built in 2011 and refitted in 2022, this 50m (164ft) Trinity Yachts-built craft is the ultimate blend of practicality and beauty. Her timeless interiors were styled by Patrick Knowles, creating intimate and refined spaces in which to relax.

Impromptu's chic main salon boasts a cosy yet sophisticated layout with warm, Med-style terracotta wall tones providing a contrasting backdrop to the cream sofas and flooring. A bar, baby grand piano and Art Deco style lamps and objects complete the look.

A custom credenza divides the salon from the formal dining zone with polished teak throughout while the sky lounge possesses a distinct clubroom feel with bar area, casual dining, sofa zone and panoramic windows.

THE EXPERIENCE

The bygone era style continues in the deco chosen for the sweeping stairwell and foyer area while entertainment options include a Kaleidoscope movie server with surround sound and a selection of streaming apps including Spotify and Apple TV in the main salon, sky lounge and master stateroom.

Impromptu's exterior decks are no less impressive, with the sky lounge offering a wet bar, games table, wine cellar and circular al fresco dining while the main deck boasts a generous and convivial comfortable classic seating area. There's also an outdoor cinema.

On the sun deck, an elevated custom designed jacuzzi with waterfall effect is clad in aquamarine mosaic tiles and serves as the centrepiece wow factor, accommodating 12, while the adjacent lounge zone, shaded casual dining area and BBQ offer numerous spots for relaxation and socialising. There's also a gym area, golfing equipment with eco-friendly golf balls, three bicycles and beach sports gear.

An extended floating beach club offers a pool with jellyfish net and water slide with a sun lounge area while watersports enthusiasts will be kept very happy by the variety of toys on board. As well as a 39ft Nor-Tech tender, Impromptu offers two waverunners, two SeaBobs, two lift electric Hydrofoils, SUPs, a wakeboard, water skis, snorkelling and fishing gear as well as towable inflatables and an enormous 12-person floating flamingo to complete the line-up.

Sleeping 12 across six spacious staterooms, the piece de resistance is the open plan master suite, which offers split levels with an elevated lounge and TV area on the mezzanine, a dedicated work zone by the entrance and elegant his and hers en suite bathrooms (hers with jacuzzi).

Five further guest suites are equally well appointed; a VIP queen suite on the bridge deck oozes glamour and enjoys panoramic views while three king suites below are beautifully furnished and also boast work stations and en suites. The en suite guest twin has a pullman and is also spacious and upscale.

THE CUISINE

The food front is also more than capable of impressing seasoned charter guests and the Italian chef prides himself on creating the best dishes his homeland has to offer, including home-made pasta (just tell him how you like it cooked and he'll do the rest!).

Potato gnocchi with Genovese basil pesto and lasagne alla Bolognese sit alongside saffron and sepia black ink risotto and lobster Bellavista as just a few of the standout Italian culinary creations.

Prepare to be taken on a truly global tastebud tour as you choose between tuna tataki with basmati rice, ginger and chives, sushi and sashimi, Greek salad, Spanish paella, salmon poke bowl, beef wellington and fish and chips as well as themed South African BBQ, home-made pizza and Basque style pinchos evenings.

Dessert lovers will be wowed by the traditional tiramisu, crepes Suzette, Sicilian cannoli, caramel panna cotta, Catalan cream and apple pie with custard.
